IS BIG EXODUS OF S. T. C. STUDENTS

400 AT BURLINGTON YESTERDAY FOR 4:48 TRAIN

MOTION PICTURES TAKEN

Classes to be Resumed Wednesday Morning—Nearly All Leave Town

The bustle, rush and work that has gone on at the State Teachers College for the past five weeks is suspended for four whole days. Groups of rejoicing students thronged the platforms of the Burlington and Wabash stations yesterday afternoon and evening and a considerable number were still going out on the trains this morning. The students were going to their homes to spend the Fourth of July holidays. Classes at the College will be resumed Wednesday morning.

One of the largest crowds to go out on any of the trains was that at the Burlington station for the 4:48 o'clock train yesterday afternoon. It has been estimated that 400 students were there. The crowd was so large that it was thought worth while by the Chamber of Commerce to have a motion picture of the scene. Accordingly Ralph Marcell was on the ground with his machine. The pictures will probably be made a part of the film for the Nodaway County agriculture film of the Chamber.

The exodus for the Fourth of July vacation this year is the biggest in numbers that has ever taken place in the history of the school, due to the fact that the enrollment is now larger by 50 per cent than it has ever been before.

Special cars were carried on the trains on both railways for the accommodation of the students. A large engine was put on the 4:48 o'clock Burlington yesterday afternoon, made necessary by the extra cars. The cars were pretty well filled.

Few students are remaining in Maryville for the holidays. Those who are remaining are, in most cases, those who live at such a distance that the expense of going home would be considerable.

The coming of the Fourth of July holidays marks the closing of the first five weeks of the summer term and there are five weeks left. The summer term will close August 4.

Some of the teachers at the College will be out of town for the next few days.

RAY HARVEY, GOLF EXPERT, GIVING INSTRUCTIONS HERE

St. Joseph Man Made the Course in Thirty-Five, Although He Was not Familiar With It.

Ray Harvey of St. Joseph, a golf expert, has been in Maryville since Wednesday giving instructions to members of the Maryville Country Club. He understands the game thoroughly and the members are keeping him busy showing them the fine points.

Mr. Harvey not only understands all the technical turns of the game and just how to play them, but he understands how to play a winning game. In spite of the fact that he was not familiar with the course he has made the round in thirty-five, which is within two of the record.

Mr. Harvey gives individual lessons by the hour. He stays at the home of Mrs. J. J. Heifner.

GOOD INTEREST IN WASHINGTON TWP.

MEETING AT HUGH WHITEFORD FARM LAST NIGHT.

WOULD LIME THEIR SOIL

It Is Believed That Demand Will Be Sufficient to Warrant Purchase of Carload.

The same interest was taken in planning a program for community work in Washington township last night, at the meeting held at the Hugh Whiteford farm east of Guilford, that has been shown in the meetings in Jefferson and Jackson townships. Roy A. Kinnaird, county agent, who met with the members of the farm bureau of the community, says that there was much interest in the liming of soil and the growing of alfalfa. It is believed that enough farmers in the township are interested in the proposition to warrant the purchase of a carload of limestone.

F. M. Rickman will collect samples of the soil and bring them to the office of the farm bureau to be tested so that it can be shown how much limestone it is advisable to apply to the various fields.

Work will be done this fall or next spring with the poultry breeders of the community. Poultry work will be one of the important parts of the work to be done here by the county agent during the next year. One or two special breeding pens will be selected this fall or early next spring.

Mrs. V. F. Laughlin and Miss Blanche Whiteford think that the women of the community will be interested in the making of homemade dress forms and sewing demonstrations. They have asked Mr. Kinnaird to make application for a specialist from the home economics department of the extension service of the University of Missouri to meet the women of that community and give demonstrations in some phase of work in which they are interested.

Two or three of the farmers near Guilford, who have soy bean attachments, were unable last year to get the soy bean seed for planting with their corn. Mr. Kinnaird will locate pure seed this year and send the farmers the information in time that those in the township may get the seed before the supply is exhausted.

V. F. Laughlin and F. M. Rickman are members of the executive committee of Washington township. Mr. Kinnaird met with these men and with Mrs. Laughlin, Miss Blanche Whiteford and Hugh Whiteford.

The men at the meeting last night report that there is only a slight infestation of Hessian fly and that these cases are scattered out over various parts of the township. They say that there is not enough of the flies to cause serious damage this year.

PARNELL TO PLAN FAIR THIS FALL

COMMUNITY MEETING TO BE HELD SATURDAY

PIG CLUB A SUCCESS

Exhibits of Grain, Vegetables and Live Stock to be Added This Year

At a meeting of a committee to be held Saturday, July 8, at the school house in Parnell, plans will be made for a two-day fair to be held at Parnell, some time this fall.

A fair was held last fall at Parnell which was such a success that the community favors another one with added attractions. There will be exhibits of grains, vegetables and live stock added to the exhibits this year. The Parnell pig club will have its sale at the same time of the fair. The board of directors of the pig club will meet with the fair committee on Saturday. W. H. Burr of the extension department of the State Teachers College and Roy A. Kinnaird, county agent, will also attend the committee meeting, which will formulate plans for the fair.

The pig club in the Parnell community has been very successful. Edith Porch, who is a member, has a remarkable record. In four months she has added close to one hundred pounds to her pigs.

The potato club of that community will meet at the same time as the fair to check up the boys and girls of the agriculture class of the high school. Some experiments such as potatoes grown covered with straw, others planted eight bushels to the acre up to fifteen bushels per acre, will be shown.

The members of the Parnell Pig Club are: Edith Porch, Laveta Myers, Charles Riley, Edna Bailey, Clarence Hutchison, John Kennedy, Leota Harris, John Auffert, George Auffert, Charles Garrard, Loren Garrard, Harold Hinton, Ralph Hinton, Pauline Jones, Gerald Boedecker, Kenneth Constant.

Mr. Burr plans to arrange fairs in other communities during the fall.

FILTERS AT THE PUMPIMG STATION BEING CLEANED

Rocks Have Been Removed From One of Them on Account of Mud.

The city has had trouble recently with the filters at the pumping station at the One Hundred and Two river. It has become necessary to remove the filter rocks from one of the beds, on account of the fact that it was so choked with mud. Workmen have been at this for the last two or three days. Some of the rocks can be washed and will be put back again, but some of them will have to be put in new. There are two of the filters.

The rains are keeping the water in the river so high that no work is being done on the new dam.

FELIX AND GROSS IN CAR ACCIDENT

MACHINE TURNS OVER NEAR ROLAND EVANS FARM.

SKIDS ON WET ROADS

Doctor Pinned Underneath—Physicians Say Injuries are Not Serious.

Dr. James Felix and Charles Gross were injured when the car in which they were driving turned over near the Roland Evans farm, south of Maryville, about 10:30 or 11 o'clock this morning.

Dr. Felix had been called out this morning about 6 o'clock and Mr. Gross went with him to drive. They were returning to Maryville over a slick piece of road. The car skidded cross ways of the road and then turned over with the wheels up. Mr. Gross was evidently thrown out of the car, but Dr. Felix was pinned under it. Mr. Gross tried to lift the car off of his companion, but was unable to do so.

Lawrence Schumacher and David Seckington were going south on the road and were just close enough to begin turning out to pass when the car turned over. They helped Mr. Gross lift the machine and take Dr. Felix from under it.

Physicians were called from the nearest house. Dr. Felix and Mr. Gross were brought to Maryville by Mr. Schumacher and Seckington.

Mr. Gross was unconscious when he reached town and was taken to the St. Francis hospital.

Dr. Felix is suffering from a bad bruise across his shoulder and is at the hospital to have an X-ray picture taken to see if there are any internal injuries or broken bones.

Physicians report this afternoon that neither of the men were seriously injured. Both of them were badly bruised. The X-ray picture did not disclose any broken bones or internal injury for Dr. Felix and an examination of Mr. Gross shows that bad bruises and cuts are his worst injuries. He will remain in the hospital for a few days.

The damage done to the car was chiefly on the top and windshield. The bows in the top were broken but the covering was not damaged much. The windshield was destroyed and the electric wiring was all burned out. A close examination was not made but it is though that this is all that was damaged.

CYRUS ASHFORD FINED $5 FOR HAVING NO LICENSE

A Session of Circuit Court Will Be Held July 7 to Make Entries on Drainage Cases

At a short session of circuit court this morning, Cyrus Ashford entered a plea of guilty to operating a motor car without license and was fined $5.

A motion for a new trial was overruled by the court in the case of Mrs. Douglas Hayes against Virgil H. Million which was sent to this county on a change of venue from Atchison County. This case was tried here and a jury gave the plaintiff damages for $4,500.

A session of circuit court will be held here on July when entries will be made in several drainage cases which are understood to have been settled.

SEVERAL GAMES WERE PLAYED YESTERDAY

Bud Hamilton Was Eliminated by Eugene Yehle—Theodore Robinson Wins Two Games

Several of the games in the golf tournament were played yesterday evening and a number of the players were eliminated. In the championship flight, Theodore Robinson defeated W. N. Deatherage 2 up in 18 holes; Ed W. Gray defeated S. G. Gillam 1 up in 19 holes, it being necessary to play an extra hole to play off the tie; Eugene Yehle defeated M. S. (Bud) Hamilton 3 up in 18 holes; Forrest Gillam defeated Fred D. Bellows 4 up in 18 holes; Sam McClurg defeated Clarence Vogt 2 up in 18 holes. Theodore Robinson played his second game against Ed W. Gray and won by 4 up in 18 holes. Forrest Gillam's second game is against Eugene Yehle, and Harvey Haines will play Sam McClurg in the second game.

The dope has been upset as it was thought Bud Hamilton would enter the finals. Hamilton made a 75 as his qualifying score, being the lowest of any of the players, and was figured to be a strong contender for the championship. Hamilton will get a prize for having the lowest qualification score.

Several of the games in the other classes in the golf tournament have been played. Those reported were: George B. Baker defeated J. L. Kraft; Bart M. Rowley defeated E. W. Keck; Dr. C. V. Martin defeated Donald Williams; and L. E. Forsyth defeated F. P. Reuillard by 7 up; the Rev. E. P. Allison defeated Dr. D. J. Thomas by 3 up; John D. Richey defeated Howard (Dick) Strong by 2 up; W. H. Allen defeated E. C. Curfman by 2 up.

The finals in each of the four classes of the tournament will be played on the Fourth.

GETTING READY FOR HORSESHOE TOURNAMENT AT RAVENWOOD

One of the features of the Fourth of July celebration at Ravenwood will be the old fashioned horseshoe tournament that is being arranged for. It is not as easy to find a good variety of shoes for the practice games now as it once was but a goodly number of them are still to found hanging about the farms and they are being put into use.

FOURTH AND MAIN TRASH CAN A CASUAL THIS MORNING

Harold O'Banion Struck It With Truck and Rammed It Against Light Post.

The city trash can which sits on the corner at the intersection of Fourth and Main streets was the only casualty when Harold O'Banion drove a truck over the curbing about 11 o'clock this morning and parked against the light post. O'Banion was coming east on Fourth street and was unable to turn short enough to keep in the street to the north on Main. The truck and lamp post were not damaged and the trash can, which was caught between the truck and lamp, was only slightly bent.

THIS CHICKEN THIEF IN NEW PRECEDENT

STEALS PURE BRED LITTLE CHICKS IN PLACE OF FRYERS

100 FROM SMOKEHOUSE

But He Left 163 for Mrs. O. E. Huston to Stock Her Poultry Lots With

A chicken thief at the farm of O. E. Huston, near Burlington Junction, established a new precedent in the profession a few nights ago when, in place of picking out some of the flock that were "ripe" for the frying pan, he selected 100 little fluffy balls three days old.

Why should he take the little chicks?

The one plausable answer is that he wanted to quit the stealing business and go to raising his own poultry. He wanted to start with pure bred stock and he knew that Mrs. Huston had purchased her eggs from a first class flock and that the little chicks were just the kind he was looking for. They were white rocks and Rhode Island Reds.

Mrs. Huston had just brought off three incubators, hatching a total of 263 chicks. She placed them in six small boxes, five of which contained 50 chicks each and the other of which contained the remaining thirteen. The boxes were placed in the smoke house. At 1 o'clock Tuesday morning they were all there for at that time they were given some attention by Mrs. Huston. At 4 o'clock in the morning some one went to look after them again and two of the boxes were gone. It was raining and the theif left no trail.

He was a kind individual, in that he might have taken all the six boxes but he evidently believed in leaving Mrs. Huston at least a part of her chicks to build up her flock with.

Mrs. Huston says that she does not know whether or not she would know her young chicks if she sees them after they have grown up.

About six weeks ago the Hustons lost several hogs weighing from fifty to seventy-five pounds. There were more than twenty-five hogs of this size on the farm. A disease got among them and seven died and were buried. It was then discovered that there were only eight left and the conclusion was that some had been stolen.

RAILWAY STRIKE BEGINS TODAY

MEN OUT OF SHOPS ALL OVER THE COUNTRY

TRAIN SERVICE CONTINUES

Managers Say Equipment Is Sufficient to Last for Several Months Without Crafts

Chicago, July 1—The shopmen's strike went into effect at 10 o'clock this morning. Reports from all parts of the country say that men are quitting. No violence of importance or interrupted train service is reported so far.

Chicago, July 1—Wage cuts aggregating approximately $134,000,000 and affecting more than a million workers on all roads went into effect today. Four hundred thousand shopmen are scheduled to go out at 10 o'clock this morning. Serious interruption of freight and passenger service is not anticipated.

Chicago, July 1.—"The trains will continue to run, strike or no strike," railway executives united in declaring last night.

Neither the maintenance of way employees, who also have been taking a strike vote but who have decided not to walk out today, nor the shop crafts mechanics, have anything to do with the actual operation of the trains, the railway managers explained.

That work is carried out by the "Big Four" brotherhoods, whose international presidents issued orders yesterday that their members should continue to carry out their usual duties irrespective of any strike action on the part of the other unions. The maintenance of way men comprise the track repair gangs and other semi-skilled labor. The shop crafts workers who are more vital to the efficient operation of a road, make repairs on rolling stock.

Railway managers said that their present equipment would be adequate for several months, and that emergency repairs might be made in outside shops. They estimated that it would be at least three months before a walkout of shopcrafts employees would seriously impair the efficiency of either passenger or freight transportation.

Topeka, Kan., July 1—The Kansas Industrial Court issued an order prohibiting the picketing of the railroad shops.

St. Louis, July 1—Ten thousand shopmen are out. There is no disorder.

Lincoln, Neb., July 1.—More than 2,500 railroad shopmen throughout Nebraska struck today

Washington, July 1.—William H. Johnston, president of the International Association of Machinists, denied that representatives of the railway strikers are here to seek audience with President Harding.

"The White House is the last place we would go for help," he said in an interview.

Washington, July 1—The first skirmish between the railway strikers and the special police took place today near Washington. No one was hurt, but the police were busy for hours preventing a new riot last night after the strikers, acording to reports, burned the cots of special policemen.

HARDING OPTIMISTIC OVER COAL STRIKE SITUATION

Washington, July 1—President Harding started for a week's trip in Ohio, confident that during his absence that the operators and miners will make progress in the settling of the strike. As regards the rail strike situation the president feels that nothing feasible can be done until the rail labor board has fought its own fight to a finish.

Back to St. Louis.

Edward F. Ferritor left last night for St. Louis to resume his work with the Shapleigh Hardware Company, after a two weeks' visit with his parents Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Ferritor, West Fourth street.

In Need of a Bath House

The following editorial from the Shenandoah Sentinel Post applies to Maryville:

The Community Club of the town of Waverly, Iowa, no larger than Shenandoah, is just completing a fine bath house for that city. The cost is approximately $1,500 which was raised by popular subscription. The building is divided into compartments with central corridor for lockers and check room. It is presumed that this also includes swimming facilities.

Shenandoah has just devoted considerable attention to providing a tourist camp for the convenience of the strangers who pass through our city, but nothing seems to be doing to provide for the welfare of the children of our own people, in the way of a bath house or swiming pool.

Why does not some philanthropic man or woman with money, that can not be carried beyond the river Styx, use it to provide a swimming pool and bath house for the children of Shenandoah? A thousand boys and girls would rise up and call such person blessed. It is one of the great needs of Shenandoah.

In years gone by there were ponds where the boys could learn to swim without great danger but the straightening of the streams and drainage of the farms have destroyed these natural places and now no boy or girl can learn to swim in safety in this vicinity.

And because we do nothing the years to come will be marked here and there with tombstones of splendid boys and girls and useful men and women who died because of their inability to swim. It is as certain as anything can be foretold in this world. We cannot pick the victims, but they are walking among us unaware of the fate in store for them. They may be your loved ones or ours.

75 PER CENT INFESTATION FROM FLY AT BRACKEN FARM

Crops North and West of Maryville Do Not Seem to Be Hurt So Much

Let The Pie Bakers Continue to Argue and Let Them Vary

There was a time when Americans ate pie for breakfast. The unimpeachable testimony of Ralph Waldo Emerson can be adduced to prove that assertion, but while the consumption of pie has been restricted to other meals since then, the pie habit has grown until it embraces the whole country. There is no longer any such thing as a pie belt. Pie covereth the country as a garment.

It is no wonder therefore that the pie baking industry has at least became conscious of itself and its greatness, and has organized on national and that it has organized on national lines. The National Association of Pie Bakers is in session in Detroit, and its president announces that its object is the protection of America's most characteristic form of pastry from the evil practices of those who would adulterate, skimp and defile it.

All of that is to the good, but when the head of the pie makers speaks of standardizing pie it may be hoped that he is not literally in earnest. Pie is a viand upon which individual genius should be allowed to display its versatility. Maybe there is one best way to make bread. There is no best way to make pie. Consider, for instance, the irrepressible conflict between those who favor allspice and the adherents of cinnamon as the proper condiment for apple pie. They will never agree and never ought to agree because either kind is best for the man who likes it best. There is also the question of boiled cider in mince pie and the controversy as to whether undercrusts should be unshortened and dense to keep in the juice or shortened, though leaky, because they taste better. Let the pie bakers continue to dispute, let them, vary, let them discover new and better things. May they never standardize pie.—Detroit Free Press.

DOG DAYS BEGIN WITH RISING OF DOG STAR WITH SUN

The dog days are a period of from four to six weeks in the summer, variously placed by almanac makers between the early part of July and the early part of September. They are called the canicular days with reference to the rising of the Dog Star (Sirius) with the sun. The conjunction of the rising of the Dog Star with the rising of the sun was regarded by the ancients as one of the causes of the sultry heat of summer and of the maladies which then prevailed.
